

Award

In recognition of his contribution to the work of the International Coffee Organization (ICO) presented to

Mr Denis O. Seudieu

In recognition of over three decades of outstanding association with the ICO as Chief Economist, we wish to convey our profound gratitude for Mr Seudieu's invaluable leadership in the Organization.

His unequaled effort and steadfast commitment have not only had an impact on the coffee industry, but have also been a constant source of inspiration to his fellow colleagues. We have all benefitted from his profound knowledge and understanding of the coffee sector and the insights he has shared have helped to radically transform the world of coffee.

Thank you for your exceptional work and unfailing dedication; you have left a lasting legacy on the entirety of the coffee sector.
