FINCA SANTA ISABEL SAN JERONIMO COPAN

The history of this farm dates back to the wonderful 1970s and 80s when Don Raúl and Doña Marina Welchez, a married couple with three children, decided to buy some land to embark on the adventure of growing coffee. By 1978, Don Raúl carried out the first expansion of the area under coffee, incorporating techniques associated with soil and water conservation, with contour lines and management of native tree vegetation. In other words, environmentally friendly coffee farming was established as the standard practice. The farm covers 60 manzanas of coffee.

But the story was just beginning. By 1996, coffee cultivation had expanded to 105 hectares (150 manzanas), and two years later, the farm switched from wet processing to dry processing and began roasting and processing under the Café Welchez brand name.

Explore the trails of Finca Santa Isabel, where coffee is part of the cultural heritage.

2-DAY COFFEE ROUTE TOURS

Hacienda Montecristo: located 15 minutes from the historic centre of Santa Rosa de Copán, with a family legacy spanning five generations and more than 100 years of history, Hotel Hacienda Montecristo opens its doors to the world. With six comfortable rooms and a family cabin with three rooms, the smell of wood fills the air and its décor is a combination of comfort and a rustic, country feel. Its terracotta-coloured walls contrast with the vegetation surrounding the grounds - we have created a space for your complete relaxation and rest.

Restaurante Generaciones: With a varied menu specialising in traditional dishes from western Honduras and unique recipes from the community, our signature dish is Sopa de Gallina India (Indian chicken soup), but you can also enjoy cuts of meat and the legendary roast suckling pig. Most of our dishes are accompanied by tortillas, cheese, butter, pickles and various products harvested from the farm.
