*The present document contains information that was available at the time of drafting. While every effort has been made to check the information provided, the ICO Secretariat cannot accept responsibility for inaccuracies.

I. VENUE

1. The 7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum (CGLF) and the 140th Session of the International Coffee Council will be held at Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Cortés (Cámara de Comercio e Industrias de Cortés – Colonia Las Brisas , 22 y 24 calle) in San Pedro Sula, Honduras.

II. PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

2. The 7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum (CGLF) and the 140th Session of the International Coffee Council will take place in San Pedro Sula from 13 to 17 October. For further information, please refer to the provisional programme of meetings and events, attached to this document as Annex I.

3. The opening ceremony – reserved for ICO Members, observers and invited guests – will be held on Monday 13 October 2025 and hosted by the President of Honduras, H.E. Xiomara Castro Sarmiento.

7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum (CGLF)

4. While side events will start on Tuesday 14 October, the 7th CGLF, part of the ICO-led structured sector-wide dialogue, will be opened on Wednesday 15 and closed on Friday 17 October. This high-profile forum brings together top executives from the coffee value chain, producers, traders, roasters, retailers and policy leaders, together with development partners and civil society. Stakeholders will consider the outcomes of the work of the Coffee PublicPrivate Task Force (CPPTF) and seek to converge towards measurable commitments and actions for the sustainable future of coffee growers and the whole coffee sector in line with the UN SDGs. A closed session of the CPPTF private sector representatives will also be held on Wednesday 15 October.

Side events

5. CGLF side events will be held on Tuesday 14 October. Please refer to provisional programme of meetings and events, attached to this document as Annex I.

III. PARTICIPATION AND COSTS

7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum

6. Participants are responsible for the costs of participation at the 7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum.

7. For the purposes of identification and security, all participants attending the meetings are required to present an identification document with a photo to be able to collect their badge on arrival at the location where the Council will take place.

IV. LANGUAGES AND DOCUMENTATION

8. The official languages of the Organization are English, French, Portuguese and Spanish.

9. Simultaneous interpretation will be available during the CEOs and Global Leaders Forum in the plenary hall.

10. To reduce expenditure and minimize environmental impact through the digitization of meeting materials, participants are strongly encouraged to bring their tablets or notebooks to the meetings they are involved in, rather than using hard copies of documents.

V. SPEAKERS

11. To facilitate the work of the interpreters and Secretariat staff, presenters and speakers at CGLF panels and related meetings are requested to submit in advance and as early as possible copies of their presentations to the ICO Secretariat.

VI. VISAS, ACCOMMODATION AND TOURS

Visas and letters of invitation

12. All travellers, without exception, must complete an immigration and customs form online before travelling to Honduras. Further information can be found in Annex II.

13. The Honduran Government will provide assistance to all participants from countries normally needing a visa to enter Honduras.

14. A resolution granting a visa exemption will be sent to participants upon the submission of the following information to ottelli@ico.org by 22 September 2025:

- Full name
- Nationality
- Itinerary
- Copy of passport

15. Participants entering the country with an exemption document will need to pay a fee of USD 30.00 upon arrival in Honduras. The list of countries whose nationals typically require a visa is available in Annex II.

16. Please note that the exemption document can be presented to airlines when traveling to Honduras, but it will only be valid for entry into Honduran territory and not for transit through any other country.

17. Failure to submit the request by the specified deadline will make the applicant ineligible for the exemption due to the mandatory processing time required to issue the document.

Accommodation and logistics

18. Participants are responsible for making their own arrangements for accommodation. Details of nearby hotels and special corporate rates kindly made available by the Host Country can be found in Annex III. The ICO does not accept responsibility for any matters related to accommodation and transport.

Tours

19. In collaboration with its Ministry of Tourism, the Host Country has organized several tours and excursions for participants who wish to explore Honduras' cultural and natural attractions. The full list of tours can be accessed by clicking here and here.
20. Participants wishing to take part in coffee tours only can consult the list of tours available here.

VII. LIABILITY DISCLAIMER

21. Participants are responsible for their own safety at all times.
22. Participants are advised not to leave briefcases and other personal items unattended.
23. The ICO does not accept responsibility and expressly excludes liability for:
 - Any costs related to travel, insurance, medical bills, and hospitalization fees;
 - Costs incurred prior to and while travelling (passports, visa, etc.);
 - Loss or damage to valuables or personal belongings lost/left in the meeting venue, hotel and social event venues;
 - Death, disability, illness or personal injury suffered in connection with attending the ICC and/or related meetings and activities.
24. In the unlikely occurrence that the 7th CEOs and Global Leaders Forum and the 140th Session of the International Coffee Council must be cancelled or postponed due to circumstances beyond the control of the ICO, the ICO shall not be liable for any costs incurred by the event attendees.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL TRAVELLERS AND LIST OF COUNTRIES WHOSE CITIZENS NEED A VISA TO ENTER HONDURAS

General information for all travellers

Passports must be valid for a minimum of six months and have at least two blank pages remaining. Before travelling, please consider the following:

Pre-check Immigration and Customs Form (“Traveller’s Declaration”):

All travellers, without exception, must complete an immigration and customs form online. This must be filled out between 72 and 3 hours before your trip. The form is available at the following link in Spanish and English only: https://sisglobal.aduanas.gob.hn/Pech/#/plataforma/otra_gestiones/formularioDJRV

Yellow Fever Vaccination:

Yellow fever vaccination is mandatory for all travellers coming from countries considered high-risk by the World Health Organization \(WHO\). The vaccination certificate must be presented upon entry to the country and must have been administered at least 10 days prior to travel.

Exemption for countries normally requiring a visa and for diplomatic/official passports and holders of consular visas for Canada, the European Union or the United States of America

As per the information contained in paragraphs from 17 to 22 of this communication, the Government of Honduras will provide an exemption document to all participants from countries which normally require a visa to enter Honduras.

Participants requesting a visa exemption are requested to submit the following information to ottelli@ico.org by 22 September 2025:

- Full name
- Nationality
- Itinerary
- Copy of passport

Participants entering the country with an exemption document will need to pay a fee of USD 30.00 upon arrival in Honduras. The list of countries whose nationals typically require a visa is available below. Please note that the exemption document can be presented to airlines when traveling to Honduras, but it will only be valid for entry into Honduran territory and not for transit through any other country.

Nationals of ICO Member countries normally needing to apply for a visa are marked with an “X” in the table below. However, nationals from the countries marked with an asterisk (*) who hold a valid visa for Canada, the United States of America or any country within the Schengen Area are also exempt from the requirement to obtain a Honduran visa. For CGLF participants who are citizens of non-ICO Member countries, they are expected to check visa requirements and proceed accordingly.
